

THE TURTLE TEN IS BACK ——— AGAIN!

Yes once again the Un-race Race is back for your running pleasure! Are you tired of packet pick-ups, chip timing hassles, shirts that don't fit, long lines, runners who take things way too seriously, and not being able to just go out and race for the fun of it?

*As you might infer from the information above, we are tired of high race fees caused by having timing chips, giving out overpriced shirts, online computer registration and other foo foo, falderal and all that jazz. Plus, we like a surprise just as much as the next person. Will three people show up? Thirty three?? Three Hundred??? Who knows?!
